SEARCHING CONTENT

Basic Search
Locate relevant results based on your search term(s). Basic search is a good place to start your research.

Advanced Search
Customize your search with more limiting options to target relevant results. You can use advanced search to run complex searches for specific results, or to perform open searches for a broad view of available content.
- Subject: Choose this field to search document tags and find results fully focused on your topic. Try subject if your basic search produces too many results.
- Publication Title: Use this option to find articles or documents from a particular publication like USA Today.
-  Entire Document: Pick this field to search within the entire text of documents. This option performs a broad search for any inclusion of your terms, so you can find precise phrases within results, or locate articles that mention specific individuals.
- Search Operators: Use these drop-downs to connect your search terms. AND ensures your results include both terms. OR broadens your search to results mentioning either term. NOT excludes a term.

Person Search
Specify characteristics like occupation, nationality, and gender, or enter a name to generate a list of matching figures covered within Biography. This is a great way to discover individuals and identify topics for further research.
